DICKENS' CHARACTERS PRESENTED BY CLASS

Members of the public speaking class of the Nineteenth Century club closed their season on Tuesday afternoon with a novel entertainment very cleverly presented before a large audience.

The chairman, Miss Sarah Wright, who has brought out the talent of the class in public speaking to a wonderful degree, presided over the program introducing the participants, who represented some of Charles Dickens' best-known characters. In opening the program she told the audience of an imaginary meeting with Dickens, which gave her the idea for an afternoon with "Our Mutual Friends."

The program was excellent and was greeted with appreciative applause. Among those who participated were: Mrs. T. Stark, Mrs. Jacob Fox, Mrs. H. W. Leggett, Mrs. L. E. Weston, Mrs. C. C. Bacon, Mrs. Turley Jack, Mrs. R. D. Fisher, Mrs. George Bone and Mrs. Julius Goodman. A feature of the program was a vocal solo by Miss Edith Field, with Mrs. Eugene Hazeltine as accompanist.

The program was followed by a reception, during which delicious refreshments were served.

The guests were welcomed by Miss Wright, assisted by Miss W. A. Carr, Mrs. D. Horley, Frank Cochran and Miss Mary Colby, each of whom appeared as some one of Dickens' characters.

Miss Wright, who is not only a very able teacher but has a very charming personality and is exceedingly popular, was given a beautiful gold bracelet watch as a gift from the members of the class, as a token of their appreciation of her efforts during the past year.

The guest list included 16 friends of the fair guest of honor.
